

Climate Investor Forum Pty Ltd

PRIVACY POLICY

Climate Investor Forum is committed to protecting the privacy of event participants and maintaining transparency about how personal information is collected, used, and shared.

Information We Collect

We collect personal information such as your name, job title, company, contact details, and any information you provide when registering or interacting with the event. This may also include publicly available professional information.

How We Use Your Information

Your information is used to manage your event participation, communicate important updates, and share relevant event-related information. We may use aggregate data to improve our event services.

Sharing Your Information

Climate Investor Forum may share your contact details with event partners, sponsors, and third parties involved in delivering the event. Information may also be transferred to a third party if Climate Investor Forum or its assets are acquired.

Photographs and Videos

Photos and videos of attendees may be taken during the event for promotional and informational purposes. By participating, you consent to Climate Investor Forum using these images publicly across various media channels.

Data Security

We take reasonable steps to protect your personal information but cannot guarantee complete security of data transmitted online.

Your Rights

You can request access to or correction of your personal information or opt out of marketing communications by contacting us at network@climateinvestorforum.com.au.
